2. KIDNEY AWARENESS PROGRAMME:

On August 10, 2018, a significant event unfolded at Gujarat Arts and Science College in Ahmedabad: the Kidney Awareness Programme, orchestrated by the Indian Renal Foundation. This foundation has been steadfastly dedicated to the multifaceted aspects of kidney health, encompassing prevention, treatment, rehabilitation, education, and research. The event served as a beacon of enlightenment, shedding light on the critical issues surrounding kidney diseases, including failure, prevention, and diagnosis. A poignant message echoed throughout the lecture: "Prevention - The Only Cure." Notably, the NCC cadets were actively involved in this noble cause, under the astute guidance of Associate NCC Officer, Lieutenant Dr. Samir Girishkumar Pandya. Their participation underscored the importance of collective effort in raising awareness and combating health challenges within the community.

1. Voter Awareness Campaign

A detailed report on the active participation of 50 dedicated students from the National Service Scheme (NSS) at Gujarat Arts and Science College in the Voter Awareness Campaign organized by the Collector and District Election Commissioner of Ahmedabad.

The campaign took place from July 1st to July 31st, 2018, with the objective of raising awareness about the upcoming Parliament Election 2019.

The Voter Awareness Campaign witnessed enthusiastic involvement from fifty NSS students, who demonstrated a strong commitment to promoting democratic participation and civic engagement among the community.

Activities:

1. Door-to-Door Awareness Drives:

- NSS students conducted door-to-door visits across various neighborhoods in Ahmedabad to disseminate information about the importance of voter registration, voting rights, and electoral processes.
- They distributed informational pamphlets, posters, and voter registration forms to encourage eligible citizens to enroll themselves for voting.

2. Street Plays and Public Events:

- The students organized street plays and interactive sessions at public places, such as parks, markets, and community centers, to engage with residents and emphasize the significance of active participation in the electoral process.
- Through creative performances and discussions, they addressed common misconceptions and barriers to voting, while also highlighting the democratic values of accountability and representation.

3. Social Media Campaigns:

- Leveraging social media platforms, NSS students launched online campaigns to reach a wider audience and amplify the message of voter awareness.
- They shared informative posts, videos, and infographics to educate young voters about their role in shaping the future of the nation through democratic participation.

Impact and Achievements:

- The active involvement of NSS students in the Voter Awareness Campaign contributed significantly to the enhancement of voter literacy and civic responsibility among the residents of Ahmedabad.
- Through their concerted efforts, they succeeded in encouraging a substantial number of individuals to register as voters and participate in the upcoming Parliament Election 2019.
- The collaboration between the Collector, District Election Commissioner, and NSS students exemplifies the effective partnership between government authorities and educational institutions in fostering a culture of democratic participation.

In conclusion, the participation of fifty NSS students from Gujarat Arts and Science College in the Voter Awareness Campaign underscores their dedication to promoting democratic values and empowering citizens through informed decision-making.

Their efforts have played a pivotal role in strengthening the democratic fabric of society and ensuring inclusive participation in the electoral process.

We extend our gratitude to the Collector, District Election Commissioner, and all stakeholders involved in organizing the campaign for their support and cooperation.

2. Campus Cleanliness Campaign

A comprehensive report on the Campus Cleanliness Campaign organized by the NSS Vibhag of Gujarat Arts and Science College on October 2nd, 6th, and 7th, 2018.

The campaign was encouraged and supported by Program Officer Dr. MG Vachhani, Professor Hema ji Kadra, Professor Meenakshi Ben, Professor Nazima Ben Ansari, Professor DK Panchal, and other faculty members, along with the active participation of fifty NSS students.

The Campus Cleanliness Campaign aimed to promote environmental awareness, instill a sense of responsibility among students, and foster a clean and hygienic campus environment conducive to learning and well-being.

Campaign Activities:

1. Awareness Drive:

- NSS students conducted an awareness drive to educate their peers about the importance of cleanliness and waste management practices.
- They distributed informative pamphlets, posters, and conducted interactive sessions to highlight the impact of littering and the benefits of maintaining a clean environment.

2. Clean-up Drives:

- On designated days, volunteers organized clean-up drives across the campus, targeting areas prone to littering and accumulation of waste.
- They collected and properly disposed of litter, sorted recyclable materials, and collaborated with campus maintenance staff to ensure effective waste management.

3. Beautification Initiatives:

- In addition to cleaning, students engaged in beautification projects such as painting murals, planting trees and flowers, and enhancing green spaces on the campus.
- These initiatives aimed to create a visually appealing and sustainable environment conducive to academic excellence and holistic development.

Impact and Achievements:

- The Campus Cleanliness Campaign generated widespread awareness and active participation among students, faculty, and staff, resulting in a noticeable improvement in campus cleanliness and hygiene.
- The collaborative efforts of NSS students and faculty members, led by Program Officer Dr. MG Vachhani, Professor Hema ji Kadra, Professor Meenakshi Ben, Professor Nazima Bin Ansari, and Professor DK Panchal, exemplify the collective commitment to environmental stewardship and community engagement.

In conclusion, the Campus Cleanliness Campaign organized by NSS Vibhag exemplifies the spirit of volunteerism, leadership, and social responsibility ingrained in the ethos of Gujarat Arts and Science College.

The active participation of NSS students, along with the support of faculty members, underscores the college's commitment to creating a sustainable and eco-friendly campus environment.

We extend our gratitude to all stakeholders for their dedication and support in making the campaign a success.

A report for the tree plantation program and watering tree program organized by Dr. R.D. Makwana and all committee members of NSS vibhag at Gujarat Arts and Science College on

8 August and 10 and 26 October, 2018

Tree Plantation Program Report

Location: Gujarat Arts and Science College Grounds

Program Overview:

The tree plantation program was organized by Dr. R.D. Makwana, coordinated by NSS units 1 and 2 of Gujarat Arts and Science College. The objective was to promote environmental sustainability and engage students in community service activities.

Participants:

- 130 students from NSS units 1 and 2
- Faculty members and staff
- Volunteers from the local community

Program Highlights:

- 10 groups of students were formed, with each group assigned to a specific area of the college grounds for tree plantation.
- A variety of tree species, suitable for the local climate and environment, were selected for planting.
- Saplings were procured from local nurseries and distributed among the groups.
- Each group was supervised by a coordinator who provided guidance and assistance throughout the planting process.
- Planting techniques were demonstrated to ensure proper handling and care of the saplings.
- The program commenced promptly at 11:00 AM and concluded at 1:00 PM.
- Participants actively engaged in planting trees, demonstrating teamwork and collaboration.
- Documentation of the program was carried out through photographs and videos, capturing the progress and enthusiasm of the participants.

Outcomes:

- A total of 500 saplings were planted across the college grounds.
- Each area designated for tree plantation was successfully covered by the respective groups.
- Participants gained hands-on experience in environmental conservation and community engagement.
- The program received positive feedback from participants, emphasizing the importance of such initiatives in fostering a sense of responsibility towards environment.

The tree plantation program organized by Dr. R.D. Makwana and coordinated by NSS units 1 and 2 of Gujarat Arts and Science College was a resounding success, thanks to the active participation and dedication of all involved. The program not only contributed to environmental conservation efforts but also instilled a sense of pride and responsibility among the college community.

4. Yuva Vikas Seminar

A report on Volunteering Efforts of NSS Vibhag Students at Yuva Vikas Seminar

In commemoration of the 50th anniversary of Yuva Vikas Trust, a seminal event, the Yuva Vikas Seminar, was organized by Gujarat Vidyapeeth on December 18, 2018. The seminar aimed to celebrate the achievements of the trust while addressing contemporary youth development issues. Notably, 20 dedicated students from the NSS Vibhag of Gujarat Arts and Science College actively participated in coordinating stage activities and catering services.

Volunteering Roles and Responsibilities:

The NSS Vibhag students played a pivotal role in ensuring the smooth execution of various activities during the seminar. Their responsibilities included:

1. Stage Coordination: The volunteers efficiently managed the stage activities, ensuring timely transitions between speakers and presentations. They were instrumental in maintaining the flow of the event, contributing to its overall success.
2. Catering Services: In addition to stage coordination, the NSS volunteers also assisted in catering services. They helped in the setup, serving, and cleanup processes, ensuring that attendees were provided with refreshments in a seamless manner.

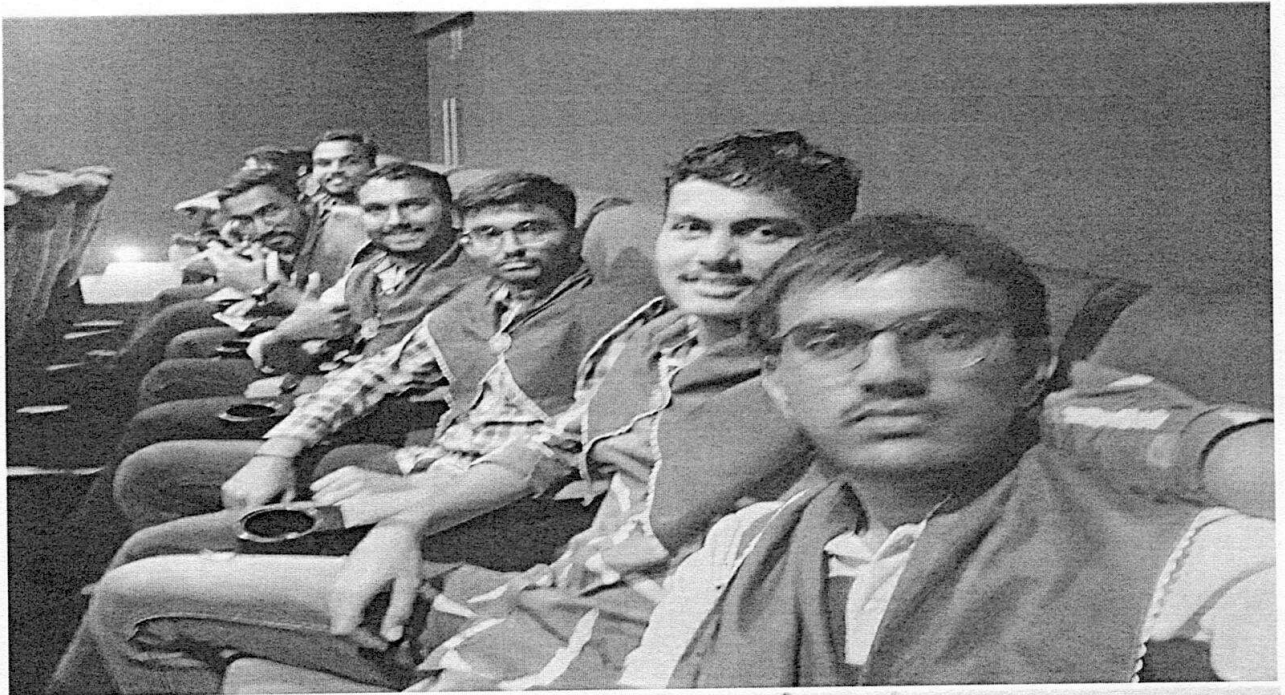

Support and Encouragement:

The efforts of the NSS Vibhag students were supported and encouraged by all committee members of NSS Vibhag, who recognized the significance of their contribution to the seminar. The collaborative spirit among the volunteers and the committee members fostered a positive environment, enhancing the effectiveness of their collective endeavors.

The involvement of NSS Vibhag students in the Yuva Vikas Seminar exemplified their commitment to community service and social responsibility. Through their voluntary efforts, they not only contributed to the success of the event but also gained valuable experience in event management and teamwork. Moreover, their participation highlighted the importance of youth engagement in such initiatives, emphasizing the role of education institutions in nurturing responsible citizens.

The volunteering efforts of the 20 students from NSS Vibhag of Gujarat Arts and Science College in stage coordination and catering services during the Yuva Vikas Seminar were commendable. Their dedication, supported by the encouragement of NSS Vibhag committee members, played a vital role in ensuring the smooth conduct of the event. Such initiatives underscore the transformative power of youth engagement in community development endeavors, embodying the ethos of service and leadership.

7. Visit to Cancer Hospital Vasna by NSS Students

Date: January 22, 2019

On January 22, 2019, 50 students from the NSS (National Service Scheme) of Gujarat Arts and Science College, accompanied by Program Officer Dr. MG Vachhani and Professor Nazima Ansari, visited the Cancer Hospital in Vasna. The visit aimed to provide students with insights into the challenges faced by cancer patients and the healthcare professionals working in the field.

Activities:

1. Upon arrival, students were welcomed by the hospital staff and briefed about the hospital's services and facilities.
2. The students toured various departments of the hospital, including the oncology ward, radiation therapy unit, and chemotherapy unit.
3. They interacted with cancer patients, listening to their stories and experiences, which fostered empathy and understanding among the students.
4. Medical professionals gave presentations on cancer awareness, prevention, and treatment modalities, enlightening the students about the complexities of managing cancer.
5. A Q&A session allowed students to clarify their doubts and engage in discussions with the hospital staff regarding cancer care and research.

Impact:

1. Enhanced Awareness: The visit deepened students' understanding of the challenges faced by cancer patients and the importance of early detection and prevention.
2. Empathy and Compassion: Interactions with patients instilled a sense of empathy and compassion among the students, motivating them to contribute to the well-being of society.
3. Career Insights: The exposure to various aspects of cancer care provided valuable insights for students considering careers in healthcare or allied fields.
4. Community Engagement: The visit encouraged students to actively participate in community service projects aimed at supporting cancer patients and raising awareness about the disease.

Conclusion:

The visit to the Cancer Hospital in Vasna proved to be an enlightening and enriching experience for the NSS students of Gujarat Arts and Science College. It not only broadened their knowledge about cancer but also inspired them to make meaningful contributions to the fight against this disease. Such initiatives play a crucial role in nurturing socially responsible citizens and fostering a culture of empathy and service in society.

8. Report on Volunteering in Pulse Polio Vaccination Campaign

Date: 27th January 2019

On January 27th, 2019, twelve enthusiastic NSS students from Gujarat Arts and Science College actively participated in the Pulse Polio Vaccination Campaign. The aim was to contribute towards the eradication of polio and promote the importance of immunization among children.

Activities:

1. Pre-Campaign Preparation:

- Prior to the campaign, students underwent training sessions to familiarize themselves with vaccination procedures and communication strategies.

2. Community Outreach:

- The volunteers visited various neighborhoods, schools, and community centers to raise awareness about the importance of polio vaccination.
- They distributed informative pamphlets and engaged in discussions with parents to address concerns and myths related to vaccination.

3. Assistance at Vaccination Centers:

- On the day of the campaign, volunteers assisted healthcare professionals at designated vaccination centers.
- They facilitated the registration process, guided beneficiaries, and provided support to ensure a smooth vaccination experience.

4. Post-Campaign Follow-Up:

- After the campaign, volunteers conducted follow-up visits to assess vaccination coverage and address any missed opportunities for immunization.

Impact and Achievements:

- Through their dedicated efforts, the NSS students successfully administered polio drops to a significant number of children within the community.
- Their proactive engagement and effective communication contributed to increased awareness and participation in the vaccination drive.

- The collaborative efforts of Dr. MG Vachani, Professor Meenakshi Ben, and the NSS students played a vital role in the success of the campaign, fostering a sense of social responsibility and commitment to public health.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the volunteering experience in the Pulse Polio Vaccination Campaign exemplifies the spirit of community service and solidarity demonstrated by the NSS students of Gujarat Arts and Science College. Their contribution towards the noble cause of polio eradication reflects the ethos of NSS and highlights the importance of collective action in addressing public health challenges.

We extend our sincere gratitude to Dr. MG Vachani, Professor Meenakshi Ben, and all the volunteers for their dedication and invaluable support throughout the campaign.
