DECLARATION

The institute strictly follows zero tolerance in issues of ragging in the campus.

- ❖ Zero Tolerance Policy: Students must adhere to the college's strict zero-tolerance policy regarding ragging, understanding that any involvement in such activities will result in severe consequences.
- ❖ Orientation Programs: Attend and actively participate in orientation programs organized by the college at the beginning of each academic term, where the institution's policies against ragging are clearly communicated.
- ❖ Awareness of Policies: Familiarize yourself with the college's anti-ragging policies, guidelines, and code of conduct as outlined in official documents and handbooks.
- ❖ Notification Compliance: Abide by all notifications and communications from the college regarding anti-ragging measures. Stay informed about any updates or changes in the policies.
- ❖ Banners and Signage: Respect and uphold the anti-ragging messages conveyed through banners and signage across the campus. Contribute to creating an environment that discourages any form of harassment.

- ❖ Notice Board Information: Regularly check and follow information displayed on college notice boards, including details about the Internal Complaint Committee (ICC), sexual harassment cell, and emergency contact numbers.
- ❖ Online Compliance: For prospective students, ensure timely compliance with online procedures and forms related to anti-ragging measures before admission.
- ❖ Participation in ICC Meetings: Encourage active participation in meetings of the Internal Complaint Committee and sexual harassment cell to contribute to the maintenance of a safe and respectful environment.
- ❖ Transparency and Accessibility: Support the college's efforts in promoting transparency by making information about the ICC and sexual harassment committee readily available on the notice boards and official website.
- ❖ Reporting Mechanism: Immediately report any incidents or suspicions of ragging to the appropriate authorities. Be aware of the established reporting mechanisms and actively contribute to maintaining a ragging-free campus.
- ❖ Collaborative Efforts: Work collaboratively with fellow students, faculty, and staff to create a positive and inclusive atmosphere that rejects any form of ragging, fostering a sense of community and mutual respect.
